2.2 SPEECH

JUST BE YOURSELF

‘Always be a first-rate version of yourself, instead of a second-rate version of somebody else.’ – Judy Garland

Staying true to yourself can be tough when all you want to do is fit in. Knowing who you are can help you decide whether to be part of the crowd or to stand out from the rest.

[Adapted from YOU magazine]

The above is the beginning of a speech which you, as newly-chosen head prefect, will deliver to the Representative Council of Learners/Prefect Body at your first meeting. Continue the speech.

2.3 FORMAL REPORT

Learners at your school have been guilty of vandalising school property on a regular basis. Your principal has instructed you to investigate the situation and make recommendations regarding the prevention of such incidents. You are also required to propose appropriate measures to address this unacceptable behaviour.

Write the report you will submit to the Chairperson of the Governing Body and the principal of your school.

[25]

OR

2.4 LETTER OF REQUEST

The world is facing a water crisis and, as a member of your school's Environmental Club, you feel strongly that the municipality needs to consider measures to save and recycle water. You believe that a water recycling plant would be the ideal solution in your community.

Write a letter to the mayor of your town requesting that the municipality consider the construction of such a plant.

[25]

OR

2.5 INTERVIEW

A member of your community has survived a terrible ordeal and now uses the experience to motivate others. You have been asked to interview him/her for your local radio station.

Write the interview which you conduct with this inspirational person.
